

METHODS OF PAYMENT

You can choose from the following methods of payment:

- By Bank Transfer
- By PayPal
- By Satispay
- By Credit Card

Remember to carefully read the Terms and Conditions.

By Bank Transfer

Once you selected this method of payment, you will be automatically redirect to a new page which contains the information related to your order and our bank account details.

To complete the payment, you need to go to the bank or access your bank account online and make the bank transfer. Remember to enter the order number as the reference number for the payment.

Note that the goods will not be sent until we receive confirmation the transfer is approved by our bank.

By PayPal

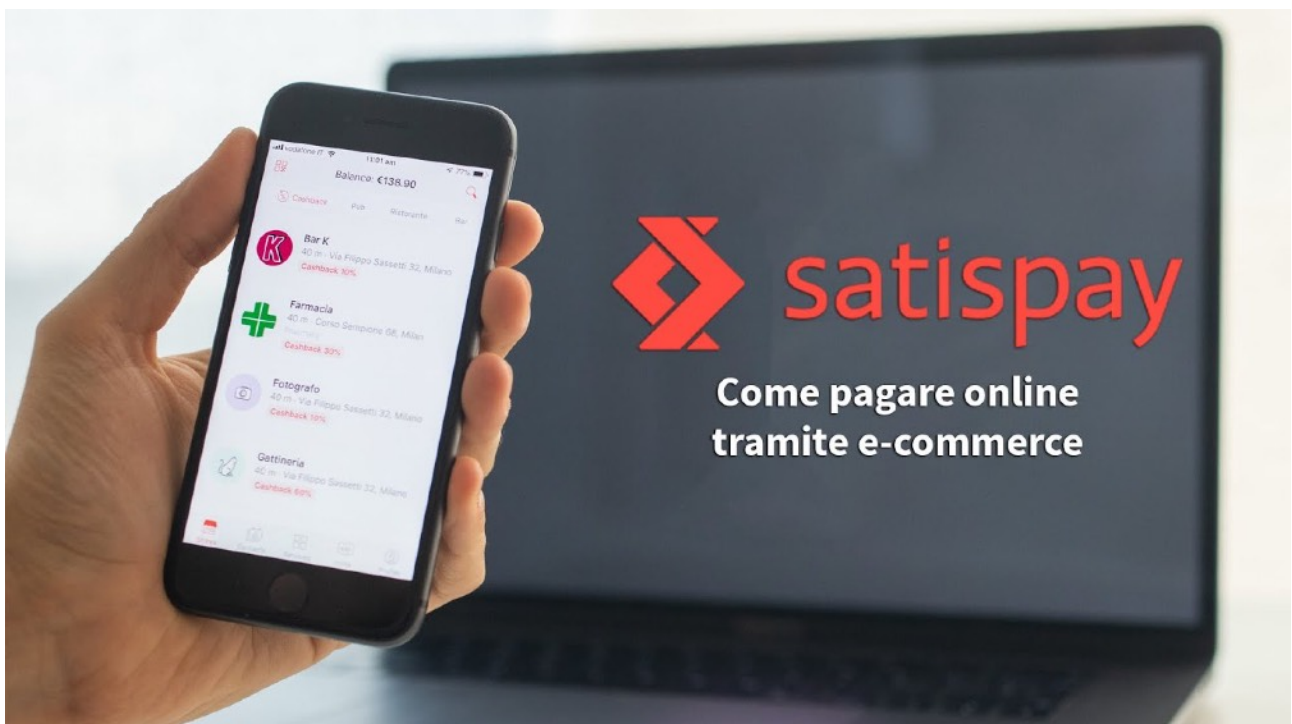

If you already have a PayPal account, after sending the order you will be directed to the PayPal Checkout where you just need to login. If you do not have a PayPal account yet, you can still purchase the order with PayPal by checking out as a guest and entering your card details. All information related to your credit card or other method of payment is retained by PayPal and not shared with us. Sometimes, our Customer Service may contact you to request additional information to determine the actual ownership of the PayPal account.

In any case of cancellation of the order, the amount related to the purchase will be simultaneously credited back to your PayPal account or to the card used to make the original purchase, via PayPal. For further information, we recommend to visit www.paypal.com

By Satispay

If you select this method of payment, you will be automatically redirected to a new page. To proceed to the payment, enter your telephone number and open the app to confirm the purchase. Alternatively, you can proceed to pay by simply using the QR Code reader in the app and send the amount to the QR address provided. For further details, we recommend you watch this video below:

Note: This method of payment is only available in ITALY.

By Credit Card

This method of payment is entirely managed by Stripe. Stripe is a first-level certified PCI (Payment Card Industry) service provider, the highest security certification in payments.

Your personal payment data is never shared with us, it is all handled independently by Stripe.

For this reason, the interface you will find is completely developed by Stripe and integrated into our website design. To proceed with the payment method, you must fill in the form with your card details as instructed.

Remember: the goods are not sent until we receive the funds into our account.
